

COGNEVA

Cogneva Inc.
Managed Web Solutions

Jason Meilleur | Web Developer

Jason makes web sites work.

Completing his education at the University of Calgary in 2000, Jason emerged from the dot com boom as a leader in web-based solutions.

Addressing the online needs of such clients as Source Media Group (a regional publisher of premier Home and Condo magazines), Kudu Industries (oil & gas pump manufacturer), Rosewood Resorts (tourism), B&L Marine (recreation) and many more, Jason is the technical team lead for the majority of his company's online contracts.

Cogneva has been a significant online technology partner to HandyRandy Communications since 2003, adhering to current web (XHTML/CSS) standards.
