HANDYRANDY COMMUNICATIONS INC.

Randy Milanovic MGDC | Strategy / Creative Director

Randy Milanovic, known as HandyRandy by clients and peers alike, is an experienced visual communicator, strategist and lead talent at HandyRandy Communications Inc.

Randy's experience includes work with the Intergulf-Cidex Group of Companies (3-tower executive hi-rise development at Westgate Park in Calgary), Toromont Energy Systems (a global leader in natural gas compression systems), Trico Homes, The Calgary Stampede, Genstar Developments, Kudu Industries (oil), Avmax Group (aviation), OmniArch Equity Partners (finance/investments) and many more. Randy and his associates serve approximately 80 clients annually.

Through a career that began in the mid-eighties, Randy has developed a vast and diverse portfolio comprising an even mix of agency and independent work. He has been named on 60+ industry awards recognizing creative and strategic excellence.

Randy believes in creating win/win situations. He is more focussed on service than a sale, brings consideration, respect, ethics, a passion for fair dealing, and just the right team of talented professionals to every table. Randy received his training at DeVry (business) and SAIT (printing) after 3 years of practical training in psychology.

An entrepreneur and regular volunteer, Randy fuels his creativity with worldwide travel and conducts information exchanges with counterparts from around the globe. He has visited work sites in Canada, USA, France, Italy, Singapore, Malaysia and Germany.

Owner of HandyRandy Communications since 1999.
